

First Times Empathy Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise First Times Empathy Cards fit conveniently into most envelopes. Mail them with a return address and signature, or leave one anonymously for someone experiencing a "first time." Simply print a copy, cut on the dotted lines, fold on the solid lines and share with someone whom you would like to say, "Been there, done that."

Word from the Motherwise: Noe this time to explain that life is full of disappointments. Remember - there's always their next birthday.

Blame Santa. After all, nobody's perfect. You'll feel better after some extra holiday
cheer.
