

First Times Empathy Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise First Times Empathy Cards fit conveniently into most envelopes. Mail them with a return address and signature, or leave anonymously for someone experiencing a "first time." Simply print a copy, cut on the dotted lines, fold on the solid lines and share with someone whom you would like to say, "Been there, done that."

Word from the Motherwise:
It's a cold day in hell before you forget this. Thankfully, cold days occur more often for parents.

There's a special
delivery we can all
live without.
