

First Times Empathy Cards for Parents

The edifying messages in the Motherwise First Times Empathy Cards fit conveniently into most envelopes. Mail them with a return address and signature, or leave anonymously for someone experiencing a "first time." Simply print a copy, cut on the dotted lines, fold on the solid lines and share with someone whom you would like to say, "Been there, done that."

Word from the Motherwise:
Note that you love each other and you do this to have a baby. They will assume you have only done "it" that many times.

It is safe sex - stomachs
have turned safely for generations.
